

The Differences between Secondary Courses

	Secondary Plus	Secondary IELTS	English for Academic Purposes
Objective	To enable students to communicate more effectively in English in both every day and future professional situations.	To prepare students to take the IELTS exam by giving them the strategies and language skills needed to maximise their score.	To give students the skills and insight to study more effectively in English at local or international universities.
Student level	Age 12-17	Age 15-17	Age 15-17
Focus	General Communication	Exam Preparation	Communication at Universities
Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improve the four essential English language skills: reading, writing, listening, and speaking • Develop core life skills such as communication, collaboration, critical thinking, leadership, creativity, digital skills, and citizenship 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop skills across all four parts of the exam • Receive training in exam techniques • Practice with authentic materials and gain access to resources • Get feedback and support to achieve higher test scores 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conduct research • Develop academic writing skills • Expand academic vocabulary • Apply effective reading strategies • Deliver impactful presentations • Attend and engage in lectures and seminars • Understand the cultural differences between Asian and Western university life
Available centres	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Siam Square • Pinklao • Chiang Mai 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Siam Square • Pinklao • Chiang Mai 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Siam Square (registrations starts!) • Pinklao (coming soon) • Chiang Mai (coming soon)